

ANTONY GORMLEY

BEING OPENS AT SCHOSS DERNEBURG

Opens 1 July 2017

The Hall Art Foundation will present the largest Antony Gormley exhibition held in Germany to date, bringing together works on paper, large-scale installations, and indoor and monumental outdoor sculpture that span the artist's sculptural journey, from the early 1980s to site-specific works created this year.

The Hall Art Foundation | Schloss Derneburg Museum is open to the public by appointment only and for guided tours only from 1 July - December 2017. For information on how to book a tour please click here
