

ANTONY GORMLEY

SURVIVOR BY HOFESH SHECHTER AND ANTONY GORMLEY

At the heart of SURVIVOR is a score by choreographer turned composer, Hofesh Shechter, performed live by his band of 30 musicians. Shechter has previously composed the score for all of his dance pieces, and now he will focus his creative energy on the music and its performance in his first concert.

Set within the visual landscape created by sculptor Antony Gormley, the Barbican stage itself becomes an instrument to be played, in a sensory experience not to be missed.

Performances: Thursday 12th - Saturday 14th January, Barbican Theatre, London
