

ANTONY GORMLEY

ATAXIA, ANNA SCHWARTZ GALLERY, MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA, 2007

30 November - 21 December 2007

This exhibition presented seven works from Gormley's 'Blockworks' series at Anna Schwartz Gallery. The 'Blockworks' model the body through four sizes of cast steel blocks that use the rules of architecture, its absolute geometries, and an improvised construction, to evoke an internal state and the body beneath the skin.
